SCHEDULE NOTICE FOR
ATTORNEY MATTHEW G. WRIGHT

FILED
COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS
4/5/2017
ABEL ACOSTA, CLERK

RE: The State of Texas v. Mikenzie Renee Rodriguez, PD-1391-15

Matthew Wright will be out of the country teaching for the Prosecutor General of Mongolia and Texas A&M School of Law, from May 4 – 27, 2017. He will have limited or no access to computers or phone.

Pursuant to the State Bar rules, Lawyer's Creed and the respective local rules, I request that you not set any matters for hearings or trials in which I am involved during this time period, if at all possible. I respectfully request that any opinions not be issued during this period, if possible. In my firm, I am the only attorney licensed to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States.

By copy of this letter, I will request that opposing counsel not set hearings, depositions or trials in any matters I am involved during this period of time. By copy of this letter, I will also request that opposing counsel not propound any discovery in any matter I am involved in which would require a response during that period or within three (3) days immediately thereafter.

For all, communications or filings please send a corresponding copy to:
